Urban Capers Scavenger Hunts

Historical, cultural and murder mystery scavenger hunts in cultural institutions and around historic neighbourhoods
Corporate Scavenger Hunts

Organizations use Urban Capers scavenger hunts for summer functions, holiday parties and team building events.

Our client list is long including high tech companies, banks, government ministries, insurance, law and accounting firms.
Our Approach

An Urban Capers scavenger hunt is a search for answers to tricky questions, not things. Players seek out hidden art, symbols and architecture to solve mysteries and decipher the clues - plus take part in photo challenges and post to social media!
Teams receive a hunt package: a clue book, suspect list (for mysteries), map, etc. Our hosts get players in the mood and ready to play, go over rules, how to earn points, and...
Teams have two hours to explore the museum or neighbourhood, tracking down and solving clues, seeking answers and completing challenges.
To wrap up, teams are scored, points are fought over, a winner is declared. The winner receives the coveted Golden Magnifying Glass.

And the winner is...
